Dear Sir:

RESPONSE TO ELECTION REQUIREMENT

In response to the election requirement set out in the Office Action mailed 27 October 2005, the Applicant hereby provisionally elects species B. Currently claims 1 through 31 are pending. Currently all claims are generic to both of the species identified by the Examiner. Note that the hydraulic controller claimed in claims 15 through 17 may be controllable to selectively cause simultaneous extension or retraction of both actuators, as claimed in claim 16, or simultaneous extension of one control actuator and retraction of the other control actuator, as claimed in claim 17. The same hydraulic controller may permit both of these modes of operation, as described in the Specification.

The Applicant looks forward to receiving further favorable action on this application.

Respectfully submitted,
